Therese shows off the fresh vegetables she grew in the community garden ANERA helped to replant in Lebanon's Nahr El Bared refugee camp.

REPORT FROM the PRESIDENT and CHAIR

Revolutions in the Middle East and global economic challenges have produced ripple effects in the areas where ANERA works. Still, we have been able to deliver quality projects and expand our network of partners.

One exciting new partnership is with TOMS Shoes through which we coordinated the delivery of thousands of shoes to children at 130 preschools across Gaza. For many, it was their very first pair of new shoes.

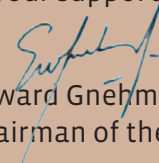

Our team of engineers continued to build clinics and sewage systems in the West Bank. They also implemented a number of important projects in Gaza that improved the quality of life for families, from the building of a diagnostic wing on a school for the deaf to erecting a water reservoir that serves 70,000 people.

Giving small children the right start in Gaza is what our education team has sought to do, by helping teachers and parents to encourage reading aloud. ANERA installed special reading corners in preschools and distributed thousands of bags filled with books especially designed for young children.

In the camps of Lebanon, we are working with frustrated youth to channel their energy into productive work, by helping them to gain the skills needed for employment in a variety of trades. By re-opening a destroyed vocational center and sponsoring further education at Lebanese institutions, ANERA is providing disadvantaged youth with hope and opportunity.

All of this occurred as we upgraded our financial controls, systematized our fundraising, and improved our project reporting.

We are profoundly appreciative of your loyalty during a year when you must have been solicited from every side. Whether it be by an online gift, monthly giving or a planned gift in your estate, your support has been crucial. Thank you.

Economic Development

- Provided 53 families in Gaza with a greenhouse, an irrigation system, a water tank, compost, seedlings, and training in farming. Families can now feed themselves and earn much needed income.
- Through our USAID-funded Emergency Water and Sanitation program (2008-2012) in the West Bank and Gaza:
 - built seven reservoirs, laid 120 miles of pipe, and constructed 115 water cisterns, all of which deliver one million gallons of water to 311,212 people
 - laid over 21+ miles of new pipes to prevent sewage from leaking into water supplies, improving sanitation conditions for 200,000+ people
 - installed rainwater drainage systems in two communities, relieving town centers from flooding
- Introduced urban and vertical agriculture, greening techniques and rainwater collection to refugee camps in Lebanon by teaching 26 women from Ein El Helweh to plant and care for vegetable and decorative plants on their balconies and roofs and bringing youth and community together in Nahr El Bared to plant 104 gardens lost during the 2007 conflict.
- Connected West Bank farmers in-person and through the use of social media and video to share agricultural best practices.

ANERA built this reservoir in Khan Younis, Gaza. It is a clean and reliable source of water for 70,000 people.

As part of ANERA's greening program, young people came together to plant trees in Nahr El Bared refugee camp in Lebanon.

Health and Relief

- Delivered 32 shipments of donated medicines, shoes, hygiene kits and health care supplies to charitable institutions and schools throughout the West Bank, Gaza, Lebanon and Jordan.
- Upgraded 13 health care facilities in the West Bank and three in Gaza as part of a major USAID-funded program.
- Helped 7,000 women in Salfit, West Bank protect themselves against breast cancer by doing self-exams.
- Provided diagnosis and rehabilitation aids to 279 disabled people in Jordan's Sukhneh Palestinian refugee camp.
- Screened 3,000 preschoolers in Gaza for intestinal parasites and made referrals for further treatment. Led awareness sessions for 300+ mothers and gave out 350 kits with soap, shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes and sponges. Funded by Johnson & Johnson.

"Antibiotics are not effective against colds or sore throat." This illustration is from a series ANERA produced to educate people in Lebanon about using medicines rationally.

ANERA upgraded the maternity ward of Holy Family Hospital, Bethlehem, which annually serves 3,000 patients, like this new mother.

In an exciting new partnership with TOMS Shoes, a company in the US with the mission of donating a new pair of shoes to a needy person for every pair bought, ANERA distributed shoes to 130 preschools across Gaza.

Nada Dajani, Photographer

Martine Btaich, Photographer

- Launched our early childhood development program, Right Start!, in Gaza. The program trains teachers, upgrades preschools, fosters reading and the arts, and involves parents and other community members in children's early development.
- Provided courses in marketable skills like plumbing and graphic design with our partner Beit Atfal Assumoud in Lebanon's Nahr El Bared camp. 66 youth graduated. We also trained 52 teachers and supervisors from camps across Lebanon in active teaching and student-centered methodologies, benefitting more than 600 students. Funded by Reach Out to Asia - Qatar Foundation.
- With USAID funding, ANERA built three new schools in the West Bank, added 142 classrooms to existing schools, and renovated another 24 schools, including 161 classrooms.
- Organized Arts for Childhood summer camps in the West Bank. Nearly 300 children at five sites in Bethlehem, Nablus and Ramallah enjoyed drama, music and painting. Expressive art is a vital component of our early childhood development programming.

“ANERA meant so much to Aref and to me because of its important work in development and humanitarian assistance. That’s why Aref decided to bequeath to ANERA his largest charitable gift.”

Aref Jabr, who passed away in 2010, was an active member of ANERA's board and advisory council. His wife Barbara Jabr, quoted, is also a long-time ANERA supporter and member of ANERA's advisory council.
